

SDRplay REACH Policy

The REACH directive is an EU directive aimed at protecting human health and the environment from the use of chemicals and the risks associated with products that contain chemicals.

SDRplay remain committed to sourcing and selecting REACH compliant materials across our product range and based on the information from our suppliers, our products are in compliance with all environmental laws and regulations.